When user zooms into continent (ie Oceania), a closer view of the continent is shown
User can drag the tag icon under the side menu to desired location
Once user lets go of the icon, they are prompted with an "Add Tag" popup from the side
User clicks "Select Song" and then a popup window of their Spotify playlists pop up so they can pick a song from there
Once user has filled out required information, they can click next and then they are prompted with a "Review" window
Now the user and other users can view the post by clicking on a tag
When "Generate Random Tag" is clicked, a random post with its details pop up for the user to read
When "Register" is clicked, a window pops up requesting user to input new details in
When "Register" is clicked, a window pops up requesting user to input new details in
When "Sign In" is clicked this popup comes up to ask user to login
When user successfully logs in or links their spotify account, they will be taken to the homepage
Clicking on the "About" or "Help" buttons takes you to their respective pages
When user clicks on "My Profile," it sends them to another page of their details.
Can also view tags by clicking the "View Tags" icon
When user clicks onto the profile button, a dropdown is presented with the option to go to their profile or to go to notifications
When user clicks onto the settings button, a dropdown is presented with the option to logout or go to settings
User can open up the side menu by clicking show, which then shows the user the most popular posts (when in continent or country, it will show popular posts of such area
When user clicks on "Notifications," it sends them to another page about the interactions of their posts and account
When user hovers over a tag, it turns blue and shows them the location's information